

Libertarian Party of Oregon Public Policy Board
Resolution 23-06 Regarding Measure 110

Whereas the Libertarian Party has advocated for unrestricted drug legalization in the national platform since 1976, and;

Whereas the Libertarian Party of Oregon has never waived on the right of individuals to consume drugs recreationally or medicinally, with or without the approval of state-recognized medical cartels, and;

Whereas in November 2020, Oregon voters passed referendum Measure 110, the Drug Addiction Treatment and Recovery Act, and;

Whereas decriminalization is a half-measure that benefits drug cartels, and results in unsafe product, and;

Whereas the Libertarian Party of Oregon advocates full legalization as necessary to increasing the safety of addicts and reducing the cost of product that drives many users to commit crimes, and;

Whereas the Oregon justice system has consistently failed to arrest and prosecute for crimes against persons and property, and;

Whereas the Libertarian Party of Oregon has never waived on the rights of individuals to protect life and property, and;

Whereas more treatment options would accommodate a greater range of individual recovery needs and constraints,

IT IS HEREBY RESOLVED, that the Libertarian Party of Oregon supports all efforts toward complete drug legalization, to remove all barriers to new treatment facilities, and that so long as the state maintains a monopoly of the criminal justice system, calls upon the governments of Oregon to arrest and prosecute all crimes against persons or their property.
