  - The committee has not met as a group, but Kyle mailed letters to 8 people who were candidates we didn't have e-mail addresses for, or candidates we couldn’t reach by e-mail but needed clarification about what office they sought, or members who were suggested to become candidates. Kyle also reached out to a few former candidates about running again.

- Primary Election Operations Committee
  - We have received approximately 230 returns from the election announcement letter, yielding the bulk of our candidates, and 21 people interested in being national convention delegates. There were fewer than 10 candidate suggestions, including one of Kate Brown for Dog Catcher.
  - Kyle created a Google Group for primary election candidates and sent invitations for everyone we had an e-mail address for. Many have joined. The list has been generally quiet, with just a couple messages encouraging people to submit candidate statements.
  - We will, but have not yet, document the process of creating the ballot mailing.
Lars motioned for approval of up to $150 for election supplies. Drew seconded. The motion passed unanimously.

- Appointing a director to fill the vacancy – Lars Hedbor
  - Timothy motioned to appoint Michelle Binker to the empty directorship position. Drew seconded.
Authorizing expenditure for ballot mailing – Kyle Markley

- We have not yet sought an estimate for our ballot mailing. The 2016 mailing cost about $11,500, so simple scaling for membership growth would put the 2018 mailing at about $12,500. Because we don’t have this much cash on hand, Kyle proposes to pay for the mailing and to hope really hard that stepped-up fundraising activity enables him to be reimbursed later.

- Kyle moves to authorize spending up to $2,500 to fund our 2018 primary ballot mailing, sending ballots to members who have not opted out of receiving a ballot, and also either returned a ballot in the previous primary election, contacted the LPO to request a ballot, or joined the LPO since the last primary election. Lars seconded. The LPO will reach out to the Misc PAC for ballot requests to make sure they are included.

- There were no comments.

Next Board Meeting

The chair moved to schedule the next meeting for May 2nd via teleconference at 7pm with the chair having authority to select a new date and venue. Lars seconded. Drew will provide the teleconference information to the board. The motion was unanimously approved by those present. The meeting adjourned at approximately 9:03 pm.

Chairperson’s Report
Kyle Markley

I’ve processed the candidate portions of the election announcement returns, and e-mail and social media requests, and have kept the candidate database up to date. We currently have 24 Libertarians and 5 Republicans. I currently expect at least three more Libertarians to be added to the candidate list.

This has turned out to be a very good year for candidate recruitment. In 2016 we nominated 28 Libertarians for the general election. This year it looks like we will nominate at least 27, plus write-ins, which we usually have lots of.

Last year I asked the Elections Division about how political parties can get a free voter list (under ORS 247.940) rather than spending the usual $500 for a statewide voter list. They said it had to be requested from the county clerks, and a strict reading of the statute supports this. The next business day after I submitted requests to each county clerk, I got several e-mails back saying they had called the Elections Division about it, and I can get it from them after all. I also got an e-mail from the Director of Elections, Steve Trout, saying they had received permission from the counties to provide lists on their behalf. So, we should be receiving our complete voter list on April 25, and we will use this to verify our candidates’ political party affiliations and to send primary election ballots. I was then also invited to a “pre-election meeting of political parties” to discuss timelines and processes for the State’s primary, including “information on how to receive your free voter lists”. I’ve accepted the invitation.

The challenge to the ballot title of IP28 has been more successful than expected, with the Oregon Supreme Court ordering very substantial changes. We filed objections to the proposed modified ballot title, and the Attorney General did not respond to them. We should receive the Court’s final ruling in a couple weeks. Even if the chief petitioners give up on IP28 – and we believe they already have, as they’ve filed a modified initiative for 2020 – this ballot title will very strongly influence future ones.

I have received a second and third draft of PAC 16869’s reconciliation proposal. I have not personally had time to work on that, and have held back on sending it to the full board because I believe we need our complete focus to be on our primary election.

Appendix C

LPO Delegacy Pool Report
Drew Layda

I have compiled a worksheet with all the interested applicants whom have expressed interest in serving as Libertarian Party of Oregon delegates to the LNC National Convention. As of Monday April 16, 2018, the 2018 LPO Delegacy pool contained 26 people who had expressed interest in serving at the LNC National Convention this year in New Orleans from June 30-July 3. I called each person who gave us their telephone number to touch base, gage commitment, answer any questions, and direct them to resources needed to fulfill a delegate’s duties.

I was able to speak with 13 who remain interested and leave five voicemails. Of the thirteen reached, four (not counting me) have already booked airfare, purchased convention packages/booked lodging. I also polled those I spoke with for interest of going-in together on an AirBnB to offset the significant lodging cost at the Convention Hotel – six of remaining nine interested people who had not already purchased airfare/packages/lodging expressed interest. There was one person contacted at this point that decided to opt-out due to financial constraints.

Every-one of our members I spoke with was very excited we were sending a reunified delegation to National Convention and proceeding diligently on reconciliation efforts. The polling on our cooperative progress was unanimously positive. Each conversation (some lengthier than anticipated) was extremely empowering, both to the people reached-back to, but to me as well. I cannot understate how incredibly enjoyable, rewarding and recharging it ended up being.

I will be sending a group email to every person on the delegacy pool as a follow up, and to duly contact those unreachable by telephone, this week. This email will contain links to resources like the convention/hotel websites and inform them again of delegate responsibilities and AirBnB idea. I will include my personal number, so they may contact me directly. I will bcc the directorship as well.

At this point I recommend, following their verification as registered Libertarians in Oregon, that the four delegate candidates who have verified their interest, and made the necessary financial commitments to attend, be named as the LPO’s first four delegates to NOLA2018 – with the rest of the delegation to be filled as more candidates become able to commit concretely. The four are Richard Burke, Gregory Burnett, Tim Reeves, and Carolyn Wade. With myself and these four, there would be 10 remaining LPO/LNC delegate positions to fill, with up to 50 alternates allowed.
